

EARTHQUAKE

Earthquake shakes Japan

My feet find firmer ground

They know the Earth is hollow

Trains torn from their tracks

The dead and injured lie

Midst miles of mangled railway

Gaping mouth of Earth

It beckons all above

Come down into its bowels

Mountains, hollows now

Their landslides heave with might

The mounds of mud in movement

Some say it's a sign

Sent from Hell or Heaven

Is this not Hell already?

Find escape in trees

In terror there to see

The oncoming Tsunami
